The Pastor's Musings...

While in Rome this year I had the privilege of visiting churches and galleries I had not seen before. One of my goals was to see as many Caravaggio paintings as possible. I managed to see 6 more of them! The reason I wanted to experience this artist is that it's the 400th anniversary of his death this year. Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio was born Sept 29, 1571 and died July 18, 1610 at the age of 38. He lived a short and tempestuous life and he died violently after an argument over a tennis match. He was radical in his art and used friends, lovers and street urchins as models for angels and saints. Is it any wonder many of his canvases were rejected by those who commissioned them. One painting of the Virgin Mary (without a halo) was identified as a courtesan! Surely not a great way to win cardinals and influence popes. He was forgotten until the beginning of the 20th century, but now he is recognized as a great master and his paintings are valued in the tens of millions.

Nice to know that God can take a man, very much the sinner, and create beautiful pieces of art which have a powerful and indeed spiritual affect on the viewer.

I would like to thank the 6 people who attended the Mission garden meeting on Saturday. It is wonderful to see so much interest shown in our gardens. With the construction of our gift shop and bathrooms I hope to unify all the gardens with the Olive Grove and create a wonderful experience for parishioners and visitors alike.

FIESTA volunteers...don't forget the Thank You Dinner on Sunday (today) at 4 p.m. at Casa Maria.

VALUES TO LIVE BY—Today's scriptures contain some catch phrases that are still quite familiar in our world: "All is vanity," and "Eat, drink, and be merry" are both scriptural in origin. In the same way that it is easy to pray last week's Lord's Prayer thoughtlessly, it is easy to let the potent passages of scripture that are built on these common sayings glide right off our slick ears.

Last week's scriptures instructed us to listen attentively to the Lord, so that we might pray carefully. Our listening and our prayer are intimately connected. In the same way, this week we learn that our values and our living are connected as well. It has become quite common to ask, "Do you own your possessions or do they own you?" Like the familiar maxims from today's readings, we might be tempted to quote this saying flippantly, and think that in the quoting of it we have truly considered it, perhaps lived it. Not true, Qoheleth, Paul, and Jesus tell us today. It is not wrong to treasure or cherish things of earth or of our own humanity; it is only wrong when those things we cherish are not of God, are not of the self-giving Christ.

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859) August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: “He died seventeen years before telephones!” Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, “So far to ordain just one, especially this one!” The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, “No burden to ordain one good priest!” In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, “praying,” one told Vianney, “for a priest with brains.” But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: “Show me the way to Ars,” he tells a boy, “and I'll show you the way to heaven.” To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, “My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth.”

VALORES PARA VIVIR

Hoy el mensaje de las Escrituras contiene algunas frases todavía familiares en nuestro mundo: “Todo es vanidad” y “come, bebe y sé feliz” tienen su origen en la Biblia. Así como resulta fácil rezar el Padre Nuestro sin pensar, también es fácil dejar que los potentes mensajes bíblicos que se fundan en dichos de sentido común se deslicen por nuestros resbaladizos oídos.

El mensaje bíblico de la semana pasada nos instruyó a escuchar atentamente al Señor, para que podamos rezar con cuidado. Nuestro oír y nuestro rezar están íntimamente ligados. De igual manera, esta semana aprendemos que nuestros valores y nuestra vida también están ligados. Se ha tornado común preguntar: “¿Eres amor de tus posesiones o son ellas las que te poseen?” Al igual que las máximas de las lecturas de hoy, podemos sentirnos tentados a citarlas sin más, y pensar que al hacerlo verdaderamente las consideramos, y tal vez las vivimos. No es verdad, nos dicen hoy Qohelet, Pablo y Jesús. No es malo atesorar o deleitarnos en las cosas de la tierra o de nuestra propia humanidad; sólo está mal cuando lo que nos deleita no es de Dios, y no son del Cristo que se entrega.
